

Numeral Expressions in Slavonic Phraseology (Czech–Russian comparison)

This Bachelor's thesis demonstrates Czech and Russian numeral phrasemes and idioms comparison. The following phraseological and idiomatical dictionaries were excerpted for its purposes: Czech phraseological and idiomatical dictionary, 1-3 volume (F. Čermák a kolektiv, Slovník české frazeologie a idiomatiky, Praha: Academia, 1983-1994, , 1. -3. díl), Molotkov's Russian language phraseological dictionary (. , , : , 1986) and Thesaurus-dictionary of modern Russian idiomatics (. . . , - , +, 2007). The extracted material was subsequently analyzed from the point of structure, quantity (frequency) and equivalency of phrasemes and idioms. Regarding theoretical aspects this Bachelor's thesis contains both selected information concerning the history and traditions of phraseology and idiomatics in Czech and Russian linguistics and chapters devoted to symbolics of numerals and semantics of selected phrasemes and idioms.
